

BEAT STREET:

"I'm ready to go; Sure you wanna play this game?; I can do it better than, better than you." If you think you can dance better than others and you have what it takes to distinguish yourself from the other brilliant dancers, then this is the exact platform that would let you prove your thought, for Saptrang '20 is all set for the face-off! Join the dance, fight for individual dance glory and gain the chance to be the solo showstopper.

[This is a solo event but not inter college, i.e. there can be more than one team representing the college. Competitors have to perform on the spot. It is a dance face-off.]

Event Head: Shivam (9649504144)

Coordinators: Prabhat (9915156458)

Akshit (8851340108)

Team size: 1

Time limit: On Spot

Rules:

Each round will consist of 2 solo dancers who will battle one another facing each other.

During the preliminary rounds, the DJ will play one song for each of the 2 dancers.

Each dancer in the preliminary rounds will have the opportunity to dance for approx. 45 sec. – There are 2 rounds for the preliminary.

Judges will choose 1 dancer from each round to advance to the next round until the battle progresses to 2 final dancers.

The final 2 dancers will be challenged to dance to the varied beats of a DJ (depending on the number of dancers in the competition).

No limitations on dance styles. Music would vary between different genres.

The participants have to bring their college ID cards.

This is a solo event but not inter college, i.e. there can be more than one team representing the college.

The performance order will be decided by chit pull system prior to the event.
